

BRITISH JOURNAL OF COMMUNITY
NURSING

Volume 13 Number 8

August 2008

- Editorial 353
All change please! NHS apathy or quality reform?
Jonathan Dawes
 Lord Darzi's review marks yet another NHS policy reform. Weren't we delivering quality already? How exactly does district nursing fit into this plan?
- Review 362
How personal health budgets may affect community nursing teams
Jaqui Hewitt-Taylor
 This paper outlines the implementation of direct payments and personal budgets and then discusses some of the issues which should be considered if such arrangements are introduced in healthcare.
- Project work 367
Introduction of the primary care cancer nursing role in a GP practice
C Perry, M Thurston
 The role of Primary Care Cancer Nurse was piloted in a GP practice. This article explores the benefits and pitfalls of implementing such a role.
- Clinical focus 354
Caring for a patient with a urostomy in a community setting
Linda Nazarko
 This article examines common complications of urostomy including stomal complications, urinary tract infections and dermal complications.
- Policy 373
Community nursing: redesign in Scotland
J Quickfall, L Pollock
 The report 'Visible, accessible and integrated care' proposes a new Community Health Nurse model in Scotland that involves the combination of the four current disciplines of district nursing. A summary is given.
- Case study 378
Health improvement through dietary management of type 2 diabetes
Antoinette De Kleijn
 This article discusses a district nurse's project to improve dietary health and education with elderly residents who are type 2 diabetics living in a care home.
- Research 384
Patient perceptions having suffered a stroke in Galway
D Casey, K Murphy, A Cooney, E O'Shea
 This study explores older people's perceptions following stroke in the vicinity of Galway. A grounded theory approach was used to obtain qualitative data.
- Legal issues 391
Mental Capacity Act 2005: advance decisions to refuse treatment
R Griffith, C Tengnah
 Consider the impact on district nurse practice of the introduction of advanced decisions refusing treatment that will allow a person to refuse even life sustaining treatment in incapacity.
- While's words 398
Sixty years of nursing and the NHS
Alison While
 Reflects on the previous 60 years of the NHS, and considers what role district nursing will play in years to come.
- Product news 395
- Education and recruitment 396